

Build the Wedding Chariot

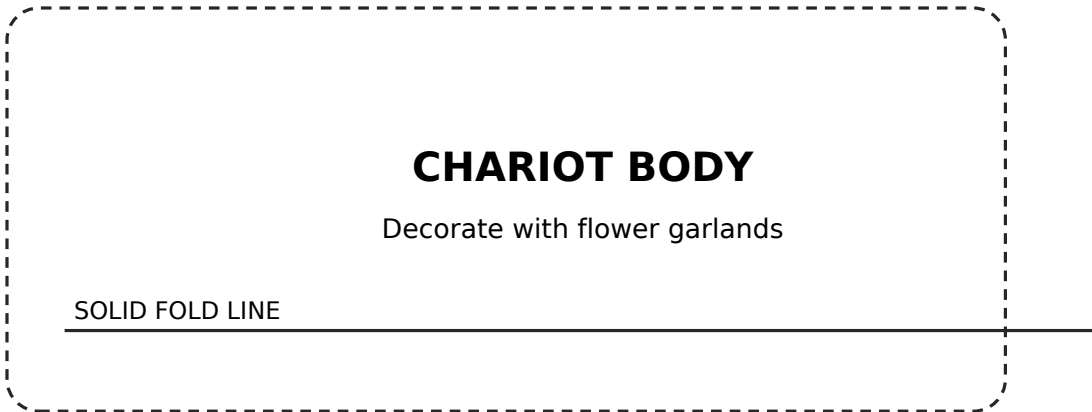

The Wedding and the Heavenly Voice | 25 minutes

Color first. Cut on dotted lines. Fold on solid lines.

----- CUT ——— FOLD

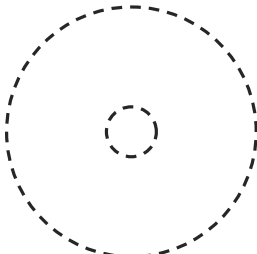

CANOPY

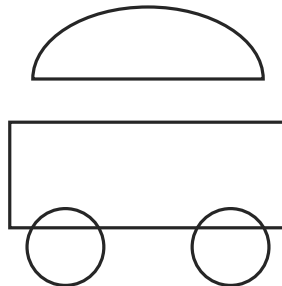

CHARIOT BODY

Decorate with flower garlands

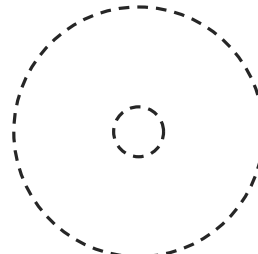

SOLID FOLD LINE

WHEEL

FINISHED CHARIOT

WHEEL

FLOWER GARLAND STRIP

FLOWER GARLAND STRIP

PARENT HELP: An adult should supervise scissors. Use glue or tape carefully.

Finished example: canopy above body, two wheels below, Kamsa in front; Devaki and Vasudeva behind.

Build the Wedding Chariot

The Wedding and the Heavenly Voice | 25 minutes

TURNING POINT: The heavenly voice changes joy to fear - Vasudeva responds calmly.

KAMSA

adult charioteer front

fold base

DEVAKI

adult royal bride behind

fold base

VASUDEVA

adult noble groom behind

fold base

The wedding celebration

Write the event number in the box

The chariot procession

Write the event number in the box

The heavenly voice

Write the event number in the box

Vasudeva protects Devaki

Write the event number in the box

Assembly steps

1. Color the parts before cutting.
2. Cut only on dotted lines; fold on solid lines.
3. Attach both wheels and canopy to the chariot body.
4. Place Kamsa at the front driving; place adult Devaki and adult Vasudeva behind him.
5. Order the four story cards, then act out the scene.

Role-play the chariot scene

The Wedding and the Heavenly Voice | 25 minutes

Story connection

Kamsa drove Devaki and Vasudeva when the heavenly voice changed the celebration.

Narrator

Line: A heavenly voice warns Kamsa about Devaki's eighth child.

Action: Guide the scene order calmly.

Prop: story cards

Kamsa

Line: Fear rises as he hears the warning about the eighth child.

Action: Show alarm without shouting.

Prop: paper crown

Vasudeva

Line: He calmly promises to bring every child and asks Kamsa not to harm Devaki.

Action: Stand protectively beside Devaki.

Prop: folded cloth

Devaki

Line: She stays close to Vasudeva and trusts his truthful promise.

Action: Stay calm and close to Vasudeva.

Prop: flower